JOINT REPORT OF COUNSEL, PURSUANT TO ORDER

Pursuant to this Court's Order on Certification of Readiness for Trial (Dkt. 45), counsel met by telephone on February 28. The parties are not able to certify that this case is ready for trial and, accordingly, file this Joint Report.

Discovery concluded with production of the requested police documents covered by the Protective Order (Dkt. 44). Both parties intend to file dispositive motions. However, counsel for defendants will be out of state for an extended period March 9 to April 8. The parties discussed scheduling and agreed to ask this Court to set April 13 as the deadline for filing dispositive motions, so that the responsive briefing will not be interrupted by counsel's absence.

The parties request that the Court not set trial until the dispositive motions are resolved. In the alternative, if this Court prefers to set trial now, the parties request a one-week trial either September 24-28 or November 5-9. If neither date is compatible with the Court's schedule, the parties request a brief status conference with the Court, in person or telephonic, to avoid schedule conflicts on other dates.

Respectfully submitted this 28th day of February, 2007.
